

Indigenous pioneer
Doug Nicholls at Fitzroy training in 1937.

IMAGES OF OUR GREAT GAME

A superb pictorial history of Australian football, Our Great Game, hit bookstores yesterday. In the foreword of this glossy coffee table book, Richmond great Kevin Bartlett describes it as "the definitive photographic record of Australian football, with the voices emanating from each photo urging us deeper and deeper into the fabric of our game". We hope you enjoy this selection from the hundreds of photographs featured in the book.

The hot-gospelling style for former St Kilda, North Melbourne and Victoria coach Alan "Killer" Killigrew in 1964.

F B 1 2 3 | C M Y K | DHS 2-JUL-2010 PAGE 104 FIRST

To celebrate the Herald Sun's photographic contribution to this magnificent publication, we are proud to offer Our Great Game to Herald Sun readers at the special price of $74.95 including delivery anywhere in Australia (RRP $99.95)

Collingwood star John Greening is carried from the Moorabbin oval on a stretcher, after being felled behind play against St Kilda in 1972. He was unconscious for 24 hours, and although he returned to football two years later, was never the same player.

For credit card orders call 1300 306 107 or order online at www.heraldsun.com.au/shop. For mail order, post a cheque/money order to: Herald Sun Shop, PO Box 14730, Melbourne, VIC, 8001.

Ron Barassi's distinctive kicking style, as seen at the MCG in 1959.

"Mr Football", Ted Whitten, addresses the Footscray players before a match against St Kilda at the Junction Oval in 1957.

Richmond hosts Footscray in a VFA match at Punt Rd Oval in 1904.